) AND ORDER THEREON

The debtor(s) (or the designated person if the debtor is not an individual) did not attend, or complete, the §341(a) meeting of creditors scheduled in this case, but the trustee requests the case not be dismissed as the following assets appear to be available for administration or the trustee believes dismissal would not be in the best interest of the estate [NOTE: PROVIDE SPECIFIC DETAILS AS TO THE POSSIBLE ASSETS, OR REGARDING ANY OTHER REASON FOR NOT DISMISSING THE CASE!:]

A real property search revealed multiple real properties that were not scheduled. In addition, the trustee believes further investigation will uncover additional assets for the bankruptcy estate. The trustee has already collected sufficient funds from accounts receivable to make this an asset case.

The trustee further moves this court for an order requiring the debtor to appear at a continued 341(a) meeting.
